

Sentec is a market leader of non-invasive respiratory monitoring and intrapulmonary percussive ventilation (IPV) solutions who develops, manufactures, and markets patient-centric, cost-effective technologies and products. We aim to improve the lives of patients by advancing non-invasive patient care by empowering clinicians with clinically superior monitoring and therapeutic technologies.

Company Video

Finance Analyst

Key Tasks:

- Provide in-depth revenue and sales performance analytics to leadership.
- Collect and analyze data to evaluate performance to monthly, quarterly, and annual sales goals, quotas, and forecast.
- Oversee and administer existing sales commission process in support of North America sales team.

Our Offer:

- Working environment in a growing company.
- Directly influence on the quality of our products and make a difference for patients worldwide.
- Opportunities for professional and personal growth.

Your Profile:

- Bachelor's degree in accounting, finance, or related business degree is required.
- 3 plus years of accounting/finance experience required; prior experience working in the medical device industry or sales organization highly preferred.
- Collaborative team player.

To apply, send your resume to jobs.us@sentec.com