

SenTec Management

Josef Hayoz | Ph.D.

Board Member and Head of Technology and (OEM)
Business Development

Current responsibilities include:

- Operational Management of Senspec GmbH (a subsidiary of SenTec since December 2014)
- Establishment of SenTec's OEM Business
- Device Connectivity
- Clinical Research Activities

Josef Hayoz joined SenTec in 2001 as 'Research and Regulatory Affairs Manager', became a member of the extended management team in Mai 2003 and of the executive management beginning of 2004. From January 2005 to February 2015 he served as CEO of SenTec. Over the years he gained experience in (clinical) research, product management/ development/ registration, marketing, sales, and general management in the field of noninvasive ventilation and oxygenation monitoring.

He holds a Ph.D. in 'Surface and Solid State Physics' from the Physics Institute of the University of Fribourg, Switzerland, and was a post-doctoral fellow at 'The Pennsylvania State University', USA.